Ainsley Harriott

I've always been a bit of an entertainer and played the funny man. I was a part-time comedian for years, so I learned how to stand in front of audiences. It made me sure of myself. I like being liked and I love making everyone smile.

I've lived in London all my life and have just moved to a larger house with my wife Clare and our two children, Jimmy and Madeleine. We spend a lot of time just singing and dancing around the house. I grew up with music because my dad is the pianist, Chester Harriott – who's still playing, by the way. My working day is divided between television and writing cook books, though TV takes most of my time. I spend about five days, fortnight working on the cooking programmes I appear in. I eat all sorts of things at home but I only buy quality food. When I'm cooking, I experiment with whatever is in the fridge – it's good practice for my TV series.

I'm a football fan and enjoy going to matches, but I'm home-loving person really. I don't like going to the pub but we do go out to eat about twice a month. There's nothing better than a night at home playing with the children. I rarely go to bed before midnight. Late evening is when fresh thoughts on cooking usually come to me, so I often write or plan my programmes then. When I eventually go to bed, I have no trouble sleeping!

28. What is the writer's main purpose in writing the text?

- A. to say what makes him laugh.
- B. to explain how he started in TV programmes.
- C. to describe how he lives.
- D. to talk about his cooking ideas.

29. What would a reader learn about Ainsley from the text ?

- A. He is a very good musician
- B. He is nervous about performing on stage.
- C. He enjoys spending time with his family.
- D. He likes to plan the family meals.

30. What does the writer say about himself ?

- A. He loves going out and meeting people.
- B. He should go to bed earlier.
- C. He is very similar to his father.
- D. He enjoys being popular.

31. What does he say about his working life ?

- A. He prefers being a comedian.
- B. He gets his best ideas at certain times.
- C. He should practise cooking more.
- D. He would like to appear less on TV.

32. The word "home-loving" means:

- A. fond of going out.
- B. fond of staying at home.
- C. fond of spending time with friends.
- D. fond of cooking.
