Read the passage and mark the letter A, B, C or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct answer to each of the questions below.

Peer pressure can strongly affect the lives of teenagers. It happens when young people feel pushed to behave in certain ways to be accepted by their friends. The effects of peer pressure can be both positive and negative.

On the positive side, it can encourage students to study harder, join useful clubs, or take part in community activities. Being surrounded by hardworking friends can motivate them to improve themselves. However, peer pressure can also lead to harmful behaviors. Some students may start skipping classes, arguing with parents, or trying copying their friends smoking and drinking just to look “cool.” These actions not only affect their health but also damage their confidence and relationships. In the long term, too much negative peer pressure can cause stress, anxiety, and poor academic performance. Therefore, teenagers should learn to make their own decisions, choose good friends, and ask for help when needed.

Question 26. According to the passage, which of the following is TRUE?

- A. Peer pressure always leads to bad behavior.
- B. Some teenagers try to look “cool” by copying their friends.
- C. Peer pressure never affects students’ emotions.
- D. Teenagers should always do what their friends tell them.

Question 27. The word “damage” in paragraph 2 is OPPOSITE in meaning to:

- A. improve
- B. destroy
- C. affect
- D. weaken

Question 28. Which of the following is NOT mentioned in the passage?

- A. Peer pressure can cause stress and anxiety.
- B. Peer pressure sometimes has positive effects.
- C. Teachers can create peer pressure at school.
- D. Teenagers should choose good friends to mitigate the effects of peer pressure.

Question 29. What is the main idea of the reading passage?

- A. Ways to become more popular in school.
- B. The effects of peer pressure among teenagers.
- C. Ways to make more friends at school.
- D. The reasons why students skip classes.
