Read the passage and mark the letter A, B, C or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct answer to each of the questions below.

Being a teenager is like joining a busy circus. You have to deal with many things at the same time. At school, there are exams, homework, and projects that take a lot of time and energy. Besides studying, many teenagers also take part in sports, clubs, music lessons, or volunteering. They also want to spend time with friends and family. With so many things to do, it's easy to understand why teenagers often feel tired and stressed.

Trying to balance everything is not easy. Finding time for all your duties can be difficult, and this often causes stress and worry. Making a plan and setting clear priorities can help, but sometimes unexpected events can change everything.

However, these busy teenage years can also teach useful lessons. Teenagers learn important skills such as managing time, staying organized, and handling pressure. They become more responsible and flexible when facing new situations. In addition, all these experiences — from studying, activities, and relationships — help them grow and understand themselves better.

Question 15. According to the passage, which of the following sentences is TRUE?

- A. Handling pressure is a valuable skill learned by teenagers.
- B. Social interactions hinder personal development.
- C. Teenagers should avoid extracurricular activities.
- D. Unexpected events never disrupt teenagers' schedules.

Question 16. The word "to deal with" in the passage is CLOSEST in meaning to _____.

- A. to balance
- B. to drop
- C. to solve
- D. to increase

Question 17. According to the passage, how do diverse experiences help teenagers?

- A. They encourage teenagers to focus only on studying.
- B. They reduce the need for teenagers to make plans.
- C. They help teenagers become more responsible and adaptable.
- D. They make teenagers spend more time on social activities.

Question 18. What is the main idea of the passage?

- A. Being a teenager means learning how to manage many responsibilities at once.
- B. Teenagers should focus only on studying to avoid stress.
- C. Teenagers often spend too much time on social media and friends.
- D. Making a plan always helps teenagers avoid stress completely.

Question 19. Which of the following is NOT MENTIONED in the passage?

- A. Teenagers sometimes volunteer in their free time.
- B. Teenagers need time to relax with family and friends.
- C. Teenagers have to manage many different activities.
- D. Teenagers often find it easy to balance school and life.
