Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct answer to each of the following questions from 33 to 36.

Today teenagers live in a very competitive world, so it is very common for young people to feel stressed out from time to time. They are also trying to do so many tasks that it becomes harder and harder to balance study, relaxation and friends.

There are different ways of dealing with stress. A good way to deal with stress is to exercise. Research has proved that physical exercise is a good release for stress, because it increases certain chemicals in the brain which calm people down. Getting enough sleep is also an important way of avoiding stress and staying healthy and full of energy. Another way to avoid stress is by managing time effectively. It is better to do several tasks really well than performing too many tasks badly. Finally, if it all gets beyond their control, teenagers shouldn't panic. Find the time to sit down quietly and breathe deeply for ten to twenty minutes. Do this regularly, and it will help them calm down and put things in order.

Question 33. Why do teenagers feel stressed?

- A. Because they are very competitive.
- B. Because they don't have friends.
- C. Because they do a great deal of tasks.
- D. Because they don't relax.

Question 34. The word "release" in paragraph 2 is CLOSEST in meaning to _____.

- A. getting rid of
- B. treatment
- C. freedom
- D. start

Question 35. Which is NOT mentioned in the text as a way of dealing with stress?

- A. Taking medicine.
- B. Doing physical exercises.
- C. Managing time well.
- D. Having enough sleep.

Question 36. What is the best title for this text?

- A. Ways of coping with stress
- B. Causes of stress
- C. Effects of stress on teenagers
- D. Life with stress

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct answer to each of the following questions from 31 to 34.

Today teenagers live in a very competitive world, so it is very common for young people to feel stressed out from time to time. They are also trying to do so many tasks that it becomes harder and harder to balance study, relaxation and friends.

There are different ways of dealing with stress. A good way to deal with stress is to exercise. Research has proved that physical exercise is a good release for stress, because it increases certain chemicals in the brain which calm people down. Getting enough sleep is also an important way of avoiding stress and staying healthy and full of energy. Another way to avoid stress is by managing time effectively. It is better to do several tasks really well than performing too many tasks badly. Finally, if it all gets beyond their control, teenagers shouldn't panic. Find the time to sit down quietly and breathe deeply for ten to twenty minutes. Do this regularly, and it will help them calm down and put things in order.

Question 31. Why do teenagers feel stressed?

- A. Because they are very competitive.
- B. Because they don't have friends.
- C. Because they do a great deal of tasks.
- D. Because they don't relax.

Question 32. The word "release" in paragraph 2 is CLOSEST in meaning to _____.

- A. getting rid of
- B. treatment
- C. freedom
- D. start

Question 33. Which is NOT mentioned in the text as a way of dealing with stress?

- A. Taking medicine.
- B. Doing physical exercises.
- C. Managing time well.
- D. Having enough sleep.

Question 34. What is the best title for this text?

- A. Ways of coping with stress
- B. Causes of stress
- C. Effects of stress on teenagers
- D. Life with stress
