You can do a few things to make homework less stressful. First, be sure you understand what you have to do in your assignment. Write it down in your notebook if you need to, and don't be afraid to ask questions about what is expected.

Second, use any extra time you have at school to work on your homework. Many schools have libraries that are specifically designed for students to study or to get their homework done.

Third, pace yourself. You need to plan your time. If it is a heavy homework day, you will need to devote more time to your homework.

Whenever you need some help, the first person you should ask for help is your teacher. Sometimes, it is good to have someone explain something that you are not completely sure of. In addition, you might also be able to get some help from another student. If there is a friend who is a good student, think about asking that person to study with you.

29. In order to make homework less stressful, the first thing to do is _____

- A. to remember the deadline.
- B. to know who can do it for you.
- C. to go to the school library as soon as possible.
- D. to understand what you have to do in your assignment.

30. If you have any extra time at school, you should _____

- A. study or get your homework done.
- B. use it to make your day planner.
- C. use it to understand the assignment.
- D. spend time with your friends.

31. When a student needs some help, the first person to ask for help is _____

- A. the best student at school.
- B. his teacher.
- C. a member in his family.
- D. his friend.

32. What is the main idea of the passage?

- A. Students can follow some advice to avoid worrying about homework.
- B. Students should ask their teachers for help when they need it.
- C. Students might get some help from their friends.
- D. Students can do their homework in school libraries.
